JUDGES

HENRY KIM

2024 JUDGE

HENRY KIM

Mr. Henry Kim is the Director of the Michael C. Carlos Museum and Associate Vice Provost. He is a museum professional who has led museums in the US, UK and Canada. A classical archaeologist and ancient historian by training, he is known for his work in developing museum display strategies that highlight cultural connections and encourage cross-cultural dialogue.

NATRICE MILLER

Natrice Miller is an Atlanta-based award-winning photojournalist and filmmaker. She is currently a staff photojournalist at The Atlanta Journal-Constitution where she covers news assignments that range from politics, education, culture and human-interest issues. In her personal work, Natrice uses various forms of mediums to create art that explores history, ritual, shared experiences and overlooked stories about the Black experience. Her photo-based art and short films have been shown in Rockefeller Center in New York City, Cape Cod Museum of Art and at institutions such as Swan Coach House Gallery, The Halsey Institute of Contemporary Art and Atlanta Contemporary.
